

PUBLIC DAILY LEDGER

SEVENTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, JANUARY 7, 1898.

ONE CENT.

We All Know

There is a popular belief that eyes cannot be properly fitted outside of an oculist's office, but we are constantly proving the incorrectness of that belief. If you have a dull pain about the eyeball, or if, when reading, the letters seem to run together, call and be relieved. We charge nothing for examination, and guarantee satisfaction in every case.

BALLENGER,
Jeweler and Optician.

Colorado expects to receive not less than $6,000,000 from the state's big fruit crop this year, the greatest the Centennial State has ever known.

The Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr. Temple, has announced authoritatively that there was no foundation for the published rumor of his intention to resign. His readers, "Don't write it 1897," and yet this week's issue of that paper bears date, "Wednesday, January 5, 1897." Why don't you practice what you preach?

The will of the late Henry Barnhart, one of the wealthiest pioneers of California, consists of only eleven words, and says simply: "I direct that my property shall be disposed of according to the laws of the state of California."

Hon. Will H. Lyons, Senator Debevoise's Private Secretary, has returned to Newport, and announces his candidacy for Marshal of the new Judicial District contemplated by the Debevoise Bill.

The Emperor of China, who was carefully educated by an American mission, can speak and read the English language fluently. He has a positive horror of European doctors, and his diet is regulated by a board of native medicine men.

The gross receipts of the L. and N. for the fourth week of December were $72,900, an increase of $16,234 over 1896, of $108,140 over 1895, of $127,942 over 1894, of $112,235 over 1893, but a loss of $39,676 as compared with 1892.

It has been noticed that within the last year clipping of bits from the Stone wall Jackson monument, at the place where he received his mortal wound on the battlefield of Chancellorsville, has seriously disfigured the monument, and steps have been taken to deal severely with relic hunters.

Homesickers' Excursion, January 12th, 1898.
On January 12th the C. and O. will sell round-trip tickets, Maysville to certain points in the West, Southwest and South alone fare, plus $2. For full particulars see C. and O. Ticket Agent.

The Fleming Fiscal Court didn't buy the Mt. Sterling place. The owners asked $9,500 and the Court offered only $4,000. As a result of the failure, the turnpike officials asked for guards for their gates, and County Judge Booe ordered the Sheriff to summon five, who are to be paid by the turnpike company.

Week of Prayer.
Union service tonight at the Christian Church at 7 o'clock. Subject, "Foreign Missions." Leader, Rev. P. W. Harrop of the M. E. Church.

Explains Itself.
But What's the Matter With Sending the P. M. a Pair of Specs?

The following letter doesn't need a diagram:
SARIS, Ky., Jan. 5th, 1898.
Mr. Thomas A. Davis, Maysville, Ky.:
Dear Sir: It would be a great accommodation to your subscribers at this place if you would print the address "Saris" in letters one inch long, so that our blind customers can see them, as we miss our paper on an average of once a week, and it is very annoying to miss a good thing so frequently.
Please grant my request and oblige.

Y. M. C. A. MATTERS.
What the Local Association is Doing For the City's Young Men.

The Women's Committee of the Y. M. C. A. will please meet at the home of Mrs. Holt Richardson on West Second street this afternoon at 8 o'clock. Business of importance.

A very interesting sight is the one that greets the eyes of those who look into the parlor on Monday and Tuesday evenings. Nineteen different young men are enrolled in the penmanship and book-keeping classes and good work is being done by all.

An ordinance in Cleveland permits a Hebrew who observes the Sabbath on Saturday to keep his billiard saloon open on Sunday, but fines Gentiles who may play billiards there.

John I. Winter, "The Price Fighter," yesterday received seventeen New Home Sewing Machines, and we asked him what he was going to do with all of them. He laughingly replied, "Still there's more to follow," informing us that this was the first shipment of 85 bought last week direct from St. Louis at Jobber's price, and that they would follow in lots of 17 each month until the entire 85 arrived. Mr. Winter informs us that he will retail these machines on the 10 per cent. plan, and that will bring them to the wholesale price; so we advise the public to watch his advertisement, which will appear in a few days. We know the price and confidently state that it will be a knockout blow to all competition.

HOW IT WORKS.
J. M. Huff writes a Card About the Post-Office Scramble at Ashland.

ASK FOR HIMSELF.
Editor News: In order that the public may understand the situation as it is, I give leave to make the following: On last Tuesday when the County Republican Committee met to recommend some one for Postmaster, there was a misunderstanding as to which was to act, the old or new county officials. Mr. Huff had advised myself and others that the old county officers were to act; and on that proposition we went to work and found that we had a majority of the board. No notice was sent to the old officers, the ones that were in office at the time the notices were issued, namely December 30th, and when the board met the new and not the old were admitted. I asked for time to hear from Mr. Huff, who had been wired for information. Being refused, I then withdrew my name from the committee, and the business was rushed through before Mr. Huff's answer was received. After my name was withdrawn there was an effort to form some kind of combination with Ashland and Catlettsburg. J. M. Huff.

Friday's Cash Sale

The C. W. Flannelette.

Like many other things, the initials C. W. have come into trade as the name of a high-class flannelette. Be careful to get only that kind. And there is no economical reason why you should not, for we have marked them five a yard. Half as much more is the usual. Soft, warm, breezy, with all the prettiness that can be evolved from dainty shades of wool tones, grays, pinks and blues. For wrappers, sacques, pajamas and children's dresses.

Everybody's husband appreciates shirts that fit. If you don't want to come down town Friday wouldn't tell him of these January prices, for he'll appreciate them more than the perfect fit, and like as not he'd ask you to stop in for some unlaundered white shirts, three-ply linen bosoms, improved fronts, hand-made button holes, patent continuous stay at opening in back. 35c, 5 for $1. Similar qualities elsewhere 50c each.

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notions" free any more than a merchant can lose over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

NO THANKSGIVING FOR HIM.

Fellow can't feel thankful.

When the rent is falling due.

And the note is in the keeping

Of the bank collector, too!

Can't feel the halcyons

A-thriving through his soul

When the cold dark on the house-top

And the hills is in for coal.

Fellow can't feel thankful

When he rises from his rest

And cannot cook a juggle.

From a frayed and faded vest!

Can't join the halcyons

At noon, or evening dim,

When the butcher waves his tomahawk

To get the scalp of him!

Perhaps the bright side's best for all,

And that's the way to go!

But it's hard to think it's summer

When the world is white with snow.

Can't fret the halcyons

A-thriving through your soul

When the cold dark on the house-top

And the hills is in for coal.
